The first examination of his wound was decisive; recovery was hopeless! # Night came on again, with her pomp of light and shade--the night that for Falkland had no morrow. One solitary lamp burned in the chamber where he lay alone with God and his own heart. He had desired his couch to be placed by the window, and requested his attendants to withdraw. The gentle and balmy air stole over him, as free and bland as if it were to breathe for him for ever; and the silver moonlight came gleaming through the lattice, and played upon his wan brow, like the tenderness of a bride that sought to kiss him to repose. In a few hours, thought he, as he lay gazing on the high stars which seemed such silent witnesses of an eternal and unfathomed mystery, in a few hours...
