Not illustrated. 1847 Excerpt: . . . been under the water-cure treatment, which he extols in the highest terms. --Sir Charles Scudamore. Stomach and Liver Tieose, with Tic Douloureux--ture arrested by falling in 10ri, and c. A gentleman, about thirty-seven years of age, was advised to try the water-curt; by a learned physician at Cheltenham. He had been many years in India, where the climate, joined with the usual mode of living there, had produced the diseased states above mentioned. He had a completely withered look, the skin being deeply wrinkled, sallow, and without any appearance of blood; the liver was enlarged, with all the ordinary symptoms of long-standing indigestion; added to these, he suffered from severe tic. After going through a carefully graduated system of treatment for a few weeks, he was able to bear water at the coldest temperature. In six weeks his face was much fuller, with the tinge of health appearing upon it, as well as on the whole surface of the body. All the functions of the digestive organs were regularly performed, and his tic was gone. At this time he unfortunately fell in love; but, like all true love, its course did not run smooth. The lady was insensible, and would not listen to the last serious question. His nights now became restless, his appetite vanished, and the tic returned with violence. We advised him to leave Malvern, which he did, much dissatisfied that water could not wash out a settled trouble from the brain, and, in...
