Not illustrated. 1869 Excerpt: .Abihu, Aaron s eldest sons, who had been admitted with the seventy elders into the very presence of the God of Israel, offered strange fire before the Lord, which He commanded not; and there went out fire from the Lord and consumed them, and Aaron was forbidden to bewail them, for this was a sin against the ordained form of worship; and from Lev. x. 9, it may be inferred that wine or strong drink had unfitted them for discernment between the holy and unholy, the clean and the unclean. Thus, therefore, did their heavenly King impress upon Israel His first and second commandments. His third was enforced also by the penalty of death, (see Lev. xxiv. 10, 16), on the son of an Israelitish woman by an Egyptian father, who blasphemed the Name of the Lord, and cursed. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,...
