INHABITANTS OF KIDDERMINSTER: My Dear Friends, --If either I or my labours have any thing of public use or worth, it is wholly (though not only) yours. And I am convinced by Providence, that it is the will of God it should be so. This I clearly discerned in my first coming to you, in my former abode with you, and in the time of my forced absence from you. When I was separated by the miseries of the late unhappy war, I durst not fix in any other congregation, but lived in a military unpleasing state, lest I should forestall my return to you. The offers of greater worldly accommodations were no temptation to me once to question whether I should leave you: your free invitation of my return, your obedience to my doctrine, the strong affection which I have yet toward you above all people, and the general hearty return of love which I find from you, do all persuade me that I was sent into the world especially for the service of your souls: and that even when I am dead I might be yet a help to your salvation, the Lord hath forced me, quite beside my own resolution, to write this treatise, and leave it in your hands. It was far from my thoughts ever, to have become thus public, and burthened the world with any writing of mine; therefore have I often resisted the request of my...
